

GRADUATE STUDIES in HISTORY

SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY

The Department of History offers graduate programs leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

Doctor of Philosophy

Candidates may specialize in the following areas: Canadian history, Modern European history, United States history.

Master of Arts

Two patterns of study are offered. Pattern I is designed for teachers whose primary interest is to broaden their knowledge so as to improve the effectiveness of their classroom instruction. Pattern II is more specifically directed toward advanced research and further graduate work.

Admission Requirements

Ph. D. — An M.A. degree in History.

M.A. — An Honours degree in History or its equivalent.

Financial Aid

In addition to the financial aid available from Canada Council and the Ministry of Education in the Province of Quebec, the University has available several assistantships valued at $2400 each.

The entire programme is offered in the evening in order to allow the participation of part-time as well as full-time students.
